

4-C Membership

4-C is a non-profit agency serving children, families, parents, child care providers, employers, and communities for 40 years.

Serving Carroll, DeKalb, Lee, McHenry, Ogle, and Whiteside Counties

Our Mission...

The 4-C mission is to promote children's well-being by advocating for quality, affordable, accessible child care. We support parents and those providing child care by offering information, education, resources, and services.

Membership...

4-C members include individuals, child care professionals, parents, businesses, industries, and community organizations who support the 4-C mission.

Membership dues are paid annually and are in effect for one calendar year.

Membership funds are used to maintain 4-C services.

Membership Benefits...

- Many free trainings that meet DCFS licensing requirements for pre-service training, in-service training, and various credential training requirements.
- Free use of the 4-C mobile and on-site resource libraries
