An Introduction to Contracts and Policies for Family Child Care

Contracts and policies can be two of the most important documents to have in a program. Family child care providers who enforce well written contracts and policies may find they are able to eliminate potential conflicts with parents. This informative training will be a stepping stone for family child care providers looking to start or improve their contracts and policies.

Audience: All Family Child Care Providers

Level of Learning: Introductory

Family Fellowship: Engaging in Genuine Relationships

Family partnerships in early childhood education need to be ongoing, reciprocal, respectful, and inclusive. These partnerships can support a child's well-being and educational progress and benefits both teachers and families alike. In this training, we will discuss the importance of family partnerships and how it benefits children, families, and teachers. We will also learn how to encourage genuine partnerships and share successes and challenges to discover how to best support children and families.

Audience: All Providers

Level of Learning: Intermediate

Intentional Teaching: Supporting Language and Concept Development

Intentional teaching does not happen by chance. As Early Childhood Professionals, we thoughtfully plan and implement our practices based on our knowledge of child development and what we know about each of the individual children we serve. During this session, we are going to focus on the development of young through daily conversations, interactions and play experiences.

Audience: All Providers

Mindful Movement in the Classroom

During this interactive training, we will focus on practical strategies for cultivating a more mindful classroom. The workshop will assist teachers/caregivers in creating a space that supports teacher and student well-being. You will learn easy to use mindful movement techniques for yourself and your classroom.

Audience: All Providers

Level of Learning: Introductory

CPR/First Aid Trainings

Training fee is waived for providers caring for families in Carroll, DeKalb, Lee, McHenry, Ogle, or Whiteside counties. Reimbursement is available for providers taking CPR/First Aid outside of 4-C. See guidelines on the training calendar page of our website.

To register, providers are required to have a current 4-C membership.

All CPR/First Aid Trainings offered by 4-C qualify for both CCAP Health and Safety Training Hours and CCAP Health and Safety Orientation
